Employment with FoodShare

Focus on Food Youth Intern program

FoodShare Toronto is now hiring for 12 positions for a 24 week long, full time, paid internship in our Focus on Food Youth Project

If you are interested in a multi-faceted work environment, we will train you to work, as a team, in either our food distribution warehouse, kitchen, office, or urban agriculture program.

This program also includes weekly life skills sessions providing valuable training and hands on experience with a range of interpersonal and professional skills from nutrition and how our food system works, first aid and health and safety training, financial management, employment counseling and more.

To qualify for the program you must be:

- Between the ages of 15-30
- Unemployed
- Have had difficulty finding long-term employment
- And/or a newcomer to Canada

You must be eager to work and learn in a team environment and ready and committed to work a full day, everyday.

The positions pay minimum wage for a 37.5 hour work week beginning on Monday January 11th and ending on Friday June 25, 2010.

To apply and register for an orientation session on either Tuesday December 8th or Tuesday December 15th please call either 416-363-6441 ext 224 or 416-347-0774 by Friday December 4, 2009

The Application Process includes:

- Registering and attending an orientation session at FoodShare, 90 Croatia Street on Tuesday December 8th, 2009 or December 15th where you will meet staff, spend the day working in our Good Food Box warehouse, receive an overview of our program and have your questions answered
- Complete an application form and schedule a follow up interview for later that week
