

2010 Winter Board of Directors Workshops

We are offering our most popular workshop in three locations this winter. Choose the location that is most convenient for you. Lunch will be included in this full-day workshop.

If you already have some experience as a director on your co-op's board, this workshop is for you! You will have the opportunity for detailed discussions of the board's roles and responsibilities. Topics will include managing arrears, maintaining the property, community development and employing staff.
