Call for Volunteers Youth Safety Night

METRAC (Metropolitan Action Committee on Violence Against Women and Children) is seeking personable, engaging and enthusiastic youth to be a part of organizing and promoting Youth Safety Night 2010. METRAC's Youth Safety Night provides an opportunity for Toronto's diverse youth to engage in meaningful dialogue about their safety needs, learn about implementing an anti-oppression approach to safety and take in inspiring speakers and riveting performances.

Responsibilities

- Distributing promotional material and outreaching at Masala! Mehndi! Masti! on July 23rd, Youth Day 2010 on July 25th and Caribana Festival on July 31st.
- Assisting with the set up and smooth operation of the Youth Safety Night on October 2nd.
- Attending an orientation meeting on July 21st or July 22nd in the evening.

Benefits

- All volunteers will be reimbursed for their travelling costs and will receive a small honorarium for every event that they attend and support.
- Acquire valuable event organizing, teamwork and outreach experience.
- Meet like minded individuals and develop strong links with the non-profit community in Toronto.
- Acquire first hand knowledge about the safety concerns of diverse youth.

If you are looking to be involved in an innovative venture send an e-mail to student2@metrac.org by Friday July 16th 5pm.

Note: In the e-mail provide your contact information and indicate which dates you are able to help out.

Thank you for your interest!
